On-Line Animal Behaviour and Welfare - University of Edinburgh (July 14th to August 8th 2014)

If any vets or nurses are interested in a "back to basics" on-line animal welfare and behavior course please take this opportunity to sign up (there is still time)! The course involves 2 hours of home study per week and it's free unless you want a formal certificate. Here's a description:

"In this animal behaviour and welfare course, you will learn about animal welfare and why it matters, develop an understanding of some of the main welfare issues animals have to cope with as well as gaining an insight into the behavioural needs and the emotions of dogs, cats, farmed animals and captive wildlife."

Please visit this link for more details and registration:
https://www.coursera.org/course/animal

Dr. Jane Gray BVSc MRCVS
Deputy Director (Veterinary Services)
Chief Veterinary Surgeon
SPCA (Hong Kong)

Help Us Protect Animals
All Proceeds From Our Services Support Animal Welfare